

BUILDING PLOT, NEWFIELDS, ANTIGUA

PRICE US$25,000

A gently sloping building plot of 0.18 acres set in a quiet location with good road access and mains electricity adjacent to the site. Situated to the east side of the island, the land is about fifteen minutes drive from St. John's and the airport.

The popular yachting areas of Falmouth and English Harbour with the World Heritage site of Nelson's Dockyard is about 20 minutes away.

The plot offers the opportunity for someone to build an affordable home. Affordable land is not often available on the island.
